with intent to distribute MDMA. Defendant has previous convictions of carjacking, possession of cocaine (two counts), and flight from an officer. He has a history of failure to appear in court. Defendant has not rebutted the presumption against his release. Defendant reserves the right to file a formal motion for a detention hearing, but a hearing will be held only if the court finds that the testimony of the witnesses, as outlined in the motion, is relevant and material, and that there is a possibility that such testimony or other evidence would rebut the presumption against release

Part III—Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation, with, defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a count proffeeding.
